KENT AND LENROOT BOLT NEW MINORITY RAILWAY COMMON

Two Congressmen Refuse to Line Up Behind Murdock in Speakership Fight.

Congressmen William Kent of California and Irvin Lenroot of Wisconsin two Republican progressives, issued statements this afternoon saying they ould decline to join with the new third

Both speak of co-operation with President Wilson "in his progressive colicies," and indicate that they will ogressive in the Republican ranks ast ad of in the ranks of a third House parts. Mr. Kent says he will satisfy himself with being known as a "Wilson progressive" or a "near progressive" as the case may be, referring in the latter instance to Colonel Roosevelt's advice regarding the near-pro-

Mr. Lenroot says he was elected as Republican progressive, and that it would be unfair at this date to repudiate the party name.

Preferred Point Up-Good Buying of Gas 5's-Odd Lot Day in Stocks.

It was odd-lot day on the local exchange, with the exception of 100 shares of Railway common in three lots. The recent upward trend of Railway common was not resumed, being checked by free offerings at 94, and while the first 25 shares brought that price the supply made a recession of 1-2 point Riggs Realty 5's (long)..... from high possible the final sale after Riggs Realty 5's (short)..... 101 call being 50 shares at 93 1-2.

common is worth 94, the preferred ought to be worth higher figures at least. The Eastern Light and Fuel. result was that the preferred moved up Amer. Tel. & Tela............ 130 to 90, and after call to 90 1-8, all for Six bank stocks showed on the sales sheet. Commercial National was pegged at 197 ex-dividend, for a time, and then on the purchase of 60 shares, the offerings were reduced to a point where an advance to 197 was easily accomplished. American National 172a173. National Metropolitan Bank, 205; American Security, 310, and United States Trust at 136.

A small lot of Capital Traction sold at 120. Washington Gas was slow, but not weak. An odd lot sold at $4 3-4; not weak. An odd lot sold at $4 3-4; Steamboat at 198, and Lanston, $6. It was really a better bond thn a stock market, the lower prices developed the earlier days of the week having attracted investors seeking employment of cash. Gas 5's sold to the extent of $11,000 face value, advancing from 108 1-4 to 108 1-2. Potomac first 5's, a high grade bond, 105; Consolidated 5's, 100 7-8, and Railway 4's, a small bond at $4. bond at 84.

The trust companies of New York
State increased their deposits $71,000,000 according to statement filed with the State superintendent of condition March 7, as compared with previous showing.
It would seem as if this would indicate the large amount of idle capital, realized largely from liquidation, and awaiting the time for reinvestment.

The annual banquet of the District Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, to be held at Raleigh Hotel next Saturday evening will be one of the most successful in the history of the organization.

Guests will be present from Baltimore, Richmond, Philadelphia, and some from New York city.

Before the dinner the Chapter will escort the guests to Mount Vernon by special car, and then to Cabin John Bridge and through the city.

The local chapter has enjoyed a winter of great intellectual accumulation ter of great intellectual accumulation of pertinent matter and is now ripe for real entertainment. Many bank offi-cials, men higher up, will attend.
